Socially Engaged Opportunities

Check out these opportunities to get involved! Visit samfox.wustl.edu/engage or contact Liz Kramer at kramer@wustl.edu for more information.

Student Organizations

Design For America
Work in interdisciplinary teams to utilize human-centered design to create local and social impact.

Design Connection
Work with University City High School graphic art students to teach specific design and software skills while providing mentoring.

NOMAS
Foster creative communication among students of all ethnicities, backgrounds, and cultures using the language of design.

ASLA
Promotes the development, education, and awareness of landscape architecture through social, volunteer, and community engagement events.

Women in Architecture and Design
An educational advocacy organization dedicated to making known the need for women architects by encouraging gender equality in the field of architecture and design.

Issues Magazine
Explore the link between architecture, design, and social issues through print and online publication, focused on the St. Louis region.

City Faces
Engage with children in Clinton-Peabody Public Housing through tutoring, mentoring, art, and other activities in order to foster self-esteem and academic confidence.

Arch Engage
Connect with community and local professionals through design-build projects throughout St. Louis.

Issues Magazine
Explore the link between architecture, design, and social issues through print and online publication, focused on the St. Louis region.

City Faces
Engage with children in Clinton-Peabody Public Housing through tutoring, mentoring, art, and other activities in order to foster self-esteem and academic confidence.

Arch Engage
Connect with community and local professionals through design-build projects throughout St. Louis.

Programming & Outreach

Alberti Program
Teach 4th-9th grade students about architecture and sustainable design through hands-on 2D and 3D problem-solving projects.

Social Hour
Discuss pressing questions for artists, designers, and creative citizens in contemporary society over tacos, 2-3 times per semester.

Funding

Civic Scholars
Two-year civic engagement and leadership training. Receive a $5000 scholarship to support a project during after junior year.

Skandalaris Internship
Ten-week internship to experience entrepreneurship with a St. Louis startup. Receive a $5000 stipend.

Arts as Civic Engagement
Receive $5000 stipend to work at a St. Louis-based arts organization on civic and community arts engagement efforts.

Goldman Fellows
Receive $5000 stipend, participate in a cohort, and complete an internship at an organization or government in St. Louis.

Civic Engagement Fund
Funding for initiatives that cultivate community engagement.

CityStudioSTL Fellowships
Paid internship at a St. Louis-based firm working on engaged projects.

CityStudioSTL Awards
Propose to continue a community collaborative project from a course.

Updated 3.8.2019